

COMMON QUESTIONS FOR WORLDVENTURES' ACQUISITION OF NUMIS NETWORK

This FAQ document is intended to address the most frequently asked questions regarding Numis Network joining WorldVentures.

How did Numis Network join WorldVentures?

The database of Numis Network members and representatives has been acquired by WorldVentures. Independent representatives of Numis will now be able to participate in WorldVentures' business opportunity and sell our membership products.

Will WorldVentures sell Numis Network's coins as a product like DreamTrips?

WorldVentures is not planning to sell coins sold by Numis as a part of its core product offering. However, WorldVentures will offer the coins in the future to members directly and support the continued shipment of coins to Numis Network's existing customers. The manner in which those coins will be offered to new customers is still being clarified.

When will Numis Network representatives be able to sell WorldVentures' products and opportunity?

Aug. 1, 2013, is the projected launch date for the Numis Network's ability to access WorldVentures' products and opportunity.

Will Numis Network sell WorldVentures through their network or through ours as WorldVentures Reps?

Numis Network representatives are required to be WorldVentures Reps to sell WorldVentures products. Numis Network will be able to offer WorldVentures' products and business opportunity after the acquisition (projected to be Aug. 1, 2013) as Reps for WorldVentures once they opt in. After the launch, Numis Network will no longer offer its business opportunity.

What if I have a team member who is in both organizations?

Representatives with a position in both companies will only be able to maintain their WorldVentures position after Aug. 1, 2013.
